

DEMONSTRATION BEFORE GREEK ROYAL PALACE
The recent political unrest throughout the Hellenic kingdom has caused frequent popular outbursts that focus in expressions of antagonism to the policies of King Constantine, whose abdication, it is believed, will go far to restore tranquility among his former subjects.

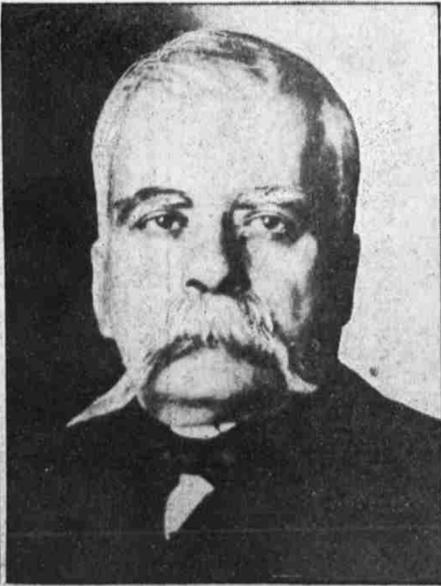

VIRTUAL RULER OF GREECE
The dethronement of King Constantine and the superseding of the pro-German Prince George, his eldest son, are regarded as establishing more firmly in power the pro-Allied faction, of which former Prime Minister, M. Venizelos, is the leader.
